

Shetland Islands Council response to Consultation on the establishment of Area Support Teams

Shetland Islands Council welcomes the proposal for Shetland to remain as a 'stand alone' Area Support Team (AST), and will negotiate accordingly with the National Convener on the basis that the establishment and support of a Shetland AST will have no additional burden on the Council's resources.

